

Module: River development, water management, and conservation

FIELD-TRIP: BREMEN AND THE RIVER WESER

June 2021, organized and moderated by Lisa Hübotter

Day 1, Wednesday, 09 June

Morning

08:15 am - Meeting point: market square at Roland statue
The historic landmarks of Bremen (market square, town hall etc.)
Schlachte: the river front – past and present
Teerhof: a gentrified “urban island”

10:15 am - Meeting point: Teerhof Bridge „Kleine Weser“
Meeting Hauke Krebs,
SKUMS: Ministry for Climate Protection, Environment,
Mobility, Urban an Housing Development
Project „Stadtstrecke“

01:30 pm - Lunchbreak Neustadt

Afternoon

02:30 pm - Meeting point: Deichscharf-Kiosk
Iris Bryson, SKUMS
Planning projects in public green areas
Topics: Floodplains as multicoded areas

04:00 pm - Exploring Stadtwerder area
Gentrification on the river (former waterworks)
Recreation on the river (rowing, sailing etc.)
Allotments: green space in the inner city

Final stop at “Papp” pub

Day 2, Thursday, 10 June

Morning

09:00 am - Meeting point: Restaurant Jürgenshof,
Meeting Dr. Lucia Herbeck, SKUMS
Project „Bresilient“
Interplay of flood risk prevention and recreational use

11:00 am - Weserwehr
Regulation of the water level, one of the largest tide-dependent run-of-the-river hydroelectricity power plants in Europe

12:30 pm - Lunchbreak Viertel

Afternoon

01:30 pm - Bicycle ride to Kuhsiel
Meeting Axel Theilen, SKUMS
Stops along the way:
Bürgerpark, nature reserve
„Blockland“

03:00 pm - Meeting point: Am Lehester Deich 149
Mr. Döscher, Deichverband
am rechten Weserufer:
overview of the field of work of the association of owners of dyked land

Final stop at „Landhaus Kuhsiel“

Bring your Bike!

Day 3, Friday, 11 June

Morning

09:15 am - Meeting point: Central Railway Station (“Hauptbahnhof”) – main entrance
Bicycle ride to Überseestadt:
The old port in transition, several stops
along the way

10:30 am - Meeting point: Waller Sand
Meeting Ole Brennecke, WFB (Bremeninvest)
Topics: multifunctional usage of a turning basin - flood risk prevention and recreation

12:00 pm - Lunchbreak Gemüsewerff
Meeting Michael Scheer,
Gesellschaft für integrative Beschäftigung mbH
Urban Gardening at the riverside

Afternoon

02:00 pm - Bicycle ride to the recreation area „Grüner
Bremer Westen“, Walle
Stops along the way; WUPP, International Garden,
Fleet Kirche, Waller Feldmarksee, Maschinenfleet

Topics: Drainage ditches, allotments and change of use

05:00 pm - Return to the Central Railway Station

Bring your Bike!